My warmest greetings to the Filipino Australian Association of the Northern Territory Inc. (FAANT) as it holds its 22nd Barrio Fiesta.

I welcome this occasion which celebrates Filipino culture and traditions in the City of Darwin and the rest of the Northern Territory. The various activities and presentations during this event will not only expose its visitors to the richness of our heritage, but will also foster an environment of amity and understanding among Filipinos and Australians.

It is my hope that this event will inspire members of FAANT to take part in endeavors that will benefit their communities as well as uplift the lives of our people back home. With your help, I am confident that we can usher in a better, safer and more prosperous future for all.

May you have a fun and engaging activity.
